Employment Unit No. 1201
Supplemental Investigation Sheet
Part II -- Inquiries Concerning EEO Program and Practices
Response to Question No. 1
Exhibit 13

Northland Communications Corporation's Employment Unit No. 1201 in Corsicana, TX uses the following methods to comply with the outreach provisions of 47 C.F.R. Section 76.75(b):

1. The system recruits for all full-time job vacancies in its operation. It notifies a variety of sources, through its Resource Recruitment List, regarding its vacancies including minority and women organizations, educational institutions, media, and other recruitment sources who have requested notification of vacancies. During the reporting period, this employment unit had 25 open full-time positions. This system's recruitment process does not provide preferential treatment to any individual or group based on race, national origin, color, religion, age or gender.
2. The system has engaged in Supplemental Outreach Initiatives including:
 - a. Establishment of training programs designed to enable unit personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions through
 - i. NOTC program which is designed to provide employees with a means to accelerate their skill levels, improve their wage earnings, and qualify them for higher level positions. NOTC provides home study courses, on-the-job training and performance evaluations. It is currently available for technical staff and allows employees to reach skill levels in the following job positions: a) Installer, b) Customer Service Technician, c) System Technician, d) Senior Technician and e) Plant Manager.
 - ii. Sales Certification Program provides a means for customer service/sales associates to improve their product knowledge and customer service skills, wages and overall success with the company. It is available to all office staff.
 - iii. Education Assistance Program which is designed to encourage all employees to participate in educational programs to further their job-related skills and improve their performance by providing tuition assistance. The Educational Assistance Program supports educational program with job-related skills, thus enhancing employee qualifications and providing better opportunities for advancement.
 - b. Participation in job banks, Internet programs, and other programs designed to promote outreach generally (i.e., that are not primarily directed to providing notification of specific job vacancies) through the following:
 - i. Once a year, Northland reaffirms its commitment to equal opportunity, as the Featured Employer on SCTE, WICT, NAMIC, and on Monster.com's Diversity and Inclusion newsletter. The postings include a link to

On an annual basis, management at the employment unit is required to complete a checklist verifying its compliance with the company's EEO policies and program. This checklist reviews the employment unit's efforts regarding dissemination, broad and inclusive outreach, supplemental outreach, record keeping, ongoing analysis, nondiscriminatory hiring and promotion policies, and dealing with contractors and complaints. A representative of the company's Human Resources team reviews the checklist and follows-up with the employment unit as appropriate.

The employment unit utilizes a recruitment resource list that has been compiled indicating organizations to contact for every full-time open position. Media used for recruitment purposes contain no indication, implicit or explicit, of a preference for one race, national origin, color, religion, age or sex over another. Advertisements for open positions note that the employment unit is an equal employment opportunity employer.

Pay increases and promotions are made regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, age, sex, or the presence of a disability. Employees are encouraged to apply for higher position in the employment unit when such openings become available. Training is provided to employees to help them qualify for higher positions.

With the implementation of the companies EEO policies and program, this employment unit, in its good faith estimation, has not encountered any problems in implementing its EEO program.

Response to Question No. 7
Exhibit 19

The Business Manager and Call Center Manager for Northland Communications Corporation's Employment Unit No. 1201 in Corsicana, TX are responsible for the application and enforcement of the company's EEO policy at this unit. Their responsibilities include:

- Reviewing and acknowledging the company's EEO manual.
- Conducting an annual EEO policy program review, during which the Business Manager is required to complete a checklist verifying the unit's compliance with the company's EEO policies and program.
- Posting notices for job applicants and employees regarding the Employment Unit's commitment to EEO.
- Ensuring that all candidates who are interviewed are reminded of their EEO rights by asking them to review and complete the company's employment application, which discusses their EEO rights and identifies the company's EEO Policy.
- Conducting an annual EEO meeting during which employees are reminded of the company's EEO policies and requirements, and how the policy is enforced.
- Posting an annual advertisement in the local newspaper informing the public of the Employment Unit's commitment to EEO.

Together with the corporate office, the Business Manager and Call Center Manager manage the recruiting process for new employees. They conduct broad and inclusive outreach by advertising with media having significant circulation in the community, and by supplementing this advertising with other recruitment sources that further expand the outreach for each and every full-time position. The Business Manager and Call Center Manager also ensure that hiring decisions are made in a non-discriminatory manner.

As discussed above, the Business Manager and Call Center Manager are responsible for the employment unit's positive application and enforcement of the company's EEO policies. In turn, their performance with respect to the EEO policies is subject to review by the VP, Human Resources and by legal counsel. The Business Manager's supervisory performance is also subject to review by the Executive Vice President. The Call Center Manager's supervisory performance is also subject to review by the Vice President, Marketing. All managers who make employment decisions are expected to abide by the letter and spirit of the company's EEO program.
